

BUSINESS SERVICES

Labor supports businesses and their employees through various services.

labor.idaho.gov

IDAHO
DEPT. OF LABOR

Support for employee recruitment, wage information, skills testing, tax credits, training resources and more.

Apprenticeships: Strengthens human resource development and elevates skills of the existing workforce.

Internships: Short-term work experiences for job seekers to level up their skills.

Business seminars: Employer workshops are offered twice a month and cover a variety of topics for businesses such as wages, labor laws, tax compliance and apprenticeships.

Work Opportunity Tax Credit: This incentive is for employers who hire disadvantaged job seekers.

Federal bonding program: Protect your business from damages when hiring an at-risk job seeker.

Wages, workforce and labor market information: What kind of salary should you offer your prospective employees? Visit our labor market information page to learn the latest on Idaho's wages: Imi.idaho.gov.

Skills assessments: Effectively evaluate the skills of your most qualified candidates with our online skills tests.

Customized hiring and job recruitment: Our workforce consultants will help connect job seekers to your business.

Layoff support/Rapid Response services: Reduce the negative aspects of a layoff on your employees with information on unemployment insurance, job placement and retraining opportunities.

Unemployment insurance tax help: Fill out quarterly reports, check your tax account and report new hires - all online.

SIDES e-response: Receive information by email about any benefit claims filed against your account.

Idaho labor laws, required posters: Our Wage and Hour unit can help you understand what laws Idaho employers must follow, including safety and minimum wage requirements. Required posters are free and available for download.

labor.idaho.gov/officedirectory

Idaho Department of Labor

The Idaho Department of Labor is an equal opportunity employer and service provider. Reasonable accommodation and auxiliary aids or services are available upon request for customers with disabilities. Dial 711 for Idaho Relay Service.

The Idaho Department of Labor's employment services programs are 100% funded by the U.S. Department of Labor as part of Wagner-Peyser Act grants totaling $12,102,970.