Idaho Department of Labor Offers Career Camp for Teens, Young Adults

The Idaho Department of Labor is holding a Career Chat Camp Jan. 26-30 to help young people prepare for their future in the workforce.

The five-day camp is open to ages 16 to 24 and runs from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily at the Idaho Department of Labor local office, 4514 Thomas Jefferson St. in Caldwell.

The camp will include daily tours of local workplaces including the Nampa Police Department. Discussions will focus on résumés, applications, networking, interviewing and soft skills.

Transportation to and from the workplaces and refreshments are included. Applications are required and are available by email from sharon.clagg@labor.idaho.gov. Seats are limited.

Customers with disabilities who need a reasonable accommodation to participate can contact workforce consultant Sharon Clagg at (208) 364-7781 ext. 3176. To access the Idaho Relay Service for the deaf and hard of hearing, dial 711.
