20 Employers Team with Labor on Boise High Business Days

Twenty businesses teamed up with the Idaho Department of Labor this spring to help Boise High School students explore different careers.

Through Boise High Business Days, which concluded April 29, eligible juniors and seniors learned employment strategies and connected with these local businesses for opportunities to job shadow in their desired career field.

After taking part in an interactive job readiness workshop on April 8, the students had job shadowing opportunities on both April 22 and again on April 29 at All Seasons Mental Health, the Bureau of Land Management, the Boise Library, the Boise State University Children's Center, Borah High School, Cherished Images Photography, Computers for Kids, CTA Architects Engineers, Curious Media, Dorsey Music, the English Language Center, the Idaho Statesman, KTVB, McU Sports, Congressman Mike Simpson, the Idaho Fish and Game Department's MK Nature Center, Sephora, St. Luke's Rehabilitation, Stack Rock Group and The Grove Hotel.
