

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: Aug. 4, 2015
Information Contact: Jeff Ray, (208) 658-2141

Correction Department to Hold Job Fairs in North Central Idaho

The Idaho Department of Correction is holding two job fairs at Idaho Department of Labor local offices this month to fill openings for correctional officers. The times and locations are:

Orofino: Monday, Aug. 10, 8 a.m. - 10 a.m., 410 Johnson Ave.

Lewiston: Monday, Aug. 17, 8 a.m. - 10 a.m., 1158 Idaho St.

Correction personnel will conduct interviews during the fairs. Applicants must be at least 21 years of age and should bring a completed background investigation questionnaire, which can be found online at <http://www.idoc.idaho.gov/content/careers>.

People with disabilities who need a reasonable accommodation to participate in the job fairs can contact John Mayton at (208) 658-2026. To access the Idaho Relay Service for the deaf and hard of hearing, dial 711.

Correctional officers receive a starting rate of $13.66 an hour with competitive benefits and an increase to $14.05 after successful completion of entrance probation.

Interviewing tips from the Department of Labor can be found online at <http://labor.idaho.gov/dnn/idl/JobSeekers/JobSearch.aspx>.

--end--

