Workforce Development Council to Meet in Nampa April 20

Idaho's Workforce Development Council will tour the College of Western Idaho's Micron Center for Professional Technical Education in Nampa as part of its quarterly meeting Wednesday, April 20, from 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. at CWI's Micron Center.

Videos featuring the people and companies benefitting from the Idaho Workforce Development Training Fund will highlight an update by Idaho Department of Labor Director Ken Edmunds. Additional topics include legislative and economic updates and Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act – WIOA - program reports.

Representatives from the governor's office, Professional – Technical Education and the College of Western Idaho will deliver updates on SkillStack, career planning and career technical education. The agenda can be found online.

A special meeting of the council's business representative membership will take place Tuesday, April 19, 3:30 – 6:30 p.m., at the Hampton Inn & Suites Boise/Spectrum.

Council members, appointed by Gov. C.L. "Butch" Otter, represent businesses, workers, education, state and local government and community based organizations. The council's mission is to advise the governor and the State Board of Education on strategies designed to yield high quality workforce innovation and opportunity services for Idaho's businesses, job seekers and students.
