Oct. 5 Hiring Event Features Workshop, Multiple Employers at Idaho Fairgrounds

More than 20 employers from the Treasure Valley will be on hand Wednesday, Oct. 5, to meet and potentially hire job seekers at the Idaho Fairgrounds South Expo Building, 5610 N. Glenwood St.

The event runs from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., beginning with a one hour workshop on resume-building, interviewing skills and how to work a job fair.

Idaho Department of Labor Director Ken Edmunds will speak at 10 a.m. to kick off the rest of the event. Labor staff will be available all day to provide resume and application assistance.

Participating employers as of Sept. 29 include Ada County Sheriff, All-American Publishing, Citi, Connexions Loyalty, Farmers Insurance, First Student, Idaho Department of Correction, Insitu, Management & Training Corporation, Mass Mutual Financial Group, Nampa School District, Overland Court Senior Living, Paradigm Roofing Group, Pioneer Federal Credit Union, Pro Service Boise, Robert Half, Southwest Idaho Advanced Care Hospital, Sterling Landscape Company, Stevens-Henager College, Stinker Stores, Sykes, Taco John's, Teleperformance, We Build Idaho and Wireless Lifestyle.

Townsquare Media is sponsoring the event with support from the Idaho Department of Labor. Customers with disabilities who need a reasonable accommodation to participate can contact Matthew Thomsen at (208) 332-3570 ext. 3698. To access the Idaho Relay Service for the deaf and hard of hearing, dial 711.
