Young Adult Career Events Highlight In-Demand Occupations

Treasure Valley young adults will have a chance to meet with staff and participate in tours of companies representing in-demand occupations at a series of events in March and April.

The goal of the career series is to help young adults see a future in the selected occupations - not as just a job, but as a career with advancement and good wage growth, according to Robert Vetter, supervisor of the Canyon County Idaho Department of Labor office, organizer of the events.

The series culminates with a large hiring event April 18 at the Canyon County Labor office from 9 – 11:30 a.m. and again from 3 – 6 p.m. Several local employers representing the featured occupations and more will be represented at the hiring event.
