

Technical correction only, no associated administrative rule. This subsection of code is outdated, from when claimants filed paper claims. With online claims now, claimants are able to change their preference at any time. For those claimants who require phone assistance, this is a simple update staff can make for customers.