

YOUNG ADULT PROGRAM

IDAHO
DEPT. OF LABOR

The Idaho Department of Labor offers services to help individuals find employment and further education under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act.

Initial eligibility

- 16-24 years of age
- Idaho resident
- U.S. citizen or work authorized
- Comply with Selective Service requirements when appropriate
- Not attending school or training (graduated or dropped out, for example)

We can help with

- Career decisions
- Finding work
- Applying for the military
- Paying for and getting your GED
- Returning to high school
- Paying for work training or college
- Setting up a paid work experience

Work-based learning benefits

- Apprenticeships: Learn specific skills, gain experience, earn a wage and recognized certificate/credential.
- On-the-job-training: Develop and reinforce skills needed to successfully perform a certain job.
- Internship: An opportunity to explore a career choice in greater depth and a means of promoting a stronger workforce.
- Work experience: An opportunity to develop good work habits and employment skills.

Access job listings 24 hours a day, seven days a week on the Idaho Department of Labor's job search website:
idahoworks.gov

Other helpful links:

Idaho state government jobs
statecareers.idaho.gov

U.S. government jobs
usajobs.gov

Find your local office and start your job search at:
labor.idaho.gov

Ask us about services for low-income adults and youth age 16 and over.

* Career and training services are provided based on eligibility and priority requirements, individual needs, abilities, current labor market requirements and appropriateness. These services are not entitlements.

LABOR.IDAHO.GOV |

Idaho's Rapid Response program is 100% funded by the U.S. Department of Labor for SFY25 as part of a WIOA Dislocated Worker grant totaling $2,336,113. The Idaho Department of Labor is an equal opportunity employer and service provider. Reasonable accommodations are available upon request. Dial 711 for Idaho Relay Service.

I-81-209e; March 2026

A proud partner of the americanjobcenter
network