

Farmworker services

IDAHO
DEPT. OF LABOR

Migrant and seasonal farmworkers have access to many employment services at all Idaho Department of Labor's offices throughout the state, including:

- Job referrals
- Job search workshops – available in Spanish at select offices
- Career guidance
- Job training information
- Resource center with computers, Internet access, fax, copiers for job searches and unemployment insurance-related activities
- Labor market information
- Community services information
- Interpretation services

Visit labor.idaho.gov to learn more about farmworker services and other programs, or to find your nearest local office.

labor.idaho.gov |

The Idaho Department of Labor's employment services programs are funded by the U.S. Department of Labor for SFY26 as part of Wagner-Peyser Act grant (70%) and state/nonfederal funds (30%) totaling $8,737,333. Reasonable accommodations are available upon request. Dial 711 for Idaho Relay Service.

March 2026

A proud partner of the americanjobcenter
network